

Forgotten Heroes, Forgotten Wars

Reunion 2006 to salute Korean, Vietnam War vets

"Forgotten heroes, forgotten wars." That is the theme of the 2006 AMA alumni reunion, held the last weekend of April, as we honor those who wore our country's uniform during the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Reunion Chairman Luke Snyder, '60, said, "One of the Vietnam War's greatest tragedies is that those who served then were not honored when they came home. And the Korean War has been largely forgotten as it came between the great World War II and Vietnam. We want to thank Augusta alumni who served during those tough times."

Plans call for a new AMA Museum exhibit detailing the participation of Augusta alumni in the two conflicts. It is hoped that the display will be ready in time for Reunion 2006.

The reunion will have its usual events: an "early bird" reception Thursday night 27 April, golf and tennis on Friday 28 April plus a luxury motor coach tour of nearby historic spots, wineries and eateries, the Awards Banquet Friday night where AMA Legacy Scholarships and AMA Alumni Medals are handed out, the Roller Rifles exhibition on Saturday 29 April together with a luncheon in the AMA Gym with Former AMA Battalion Commander Roger Messick, '52, in a tribute to the AMA alumni who were in uniform during the

The Roller Rifles at Reunion 2005.

Korean and Vietnam War. Special remembrance of those killed in action in those wars, Founders Day ceremonies and the traditional Saturday night barbecue, and finally, a Sunday morning prayer breakfast.

The Friday tour will explore President James Madison's country in and near Orange. Nearby are the Civil War battlefields of Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg, Salem Church, The Wilderness, Cedar Mountain, Brandy Station, Spotsylvania and Mine Run. The ruins of the Barboursville Estate speak to another day. There is Native American, Colonial, Revolutionary War, Civil War and modern era history all about. As they say in Orange County, exposure to all this makes "a native out of a newcomer."

Barboursville Vineyards, one of several stops for wine-tasting and views of the beautiful Virginia countryside on the Friday tour. Whether or not you drink wine, you'll be intoxicated by the scenery.

St. Thomas Church in Orange, Virginia, General Robert E. Lee's church, 1863-64. We'll visit this historic place of worship on the Friday luxury motor coach tour.

Travel on a portion of the Blue Ridge Parkway. Peek into Mosby's Confederacy. And for those who know this area, there is no reason to explain why Graves Mountain Lodge has been chosen for the lunch stop. For 135 years, this family owned mountain retreat offers all the astonishingly delicious home cooked food one can eat while being unrivaled for natural beauty. After lunch, sit on the big porch and look at what God has created!

Augusta Military Academy Alumni Association Reunion 2006

As winter brings its cleansing chill to your doorstep, there is news of warmth and welcome waiting for you at our next gathering. Planning for Reunion 2006 is well under way and it will be here sooner than you think. Taking the time, this instant, to make your travel plans and to register is my best advice. This coming April, I was looking forward to seeing an old friend I've not seen in over 30 years. He promised to attend this year's reunion for sure, but I received word he passed away recently. I'll always wish I'd tried harder to find him. Don't let this happen to you.

The Theme for this year's Reunion is, "Forgotten Wars...Forgotten Hero's". This will be the beginning of our five year objective of honoring our vets as well as our brothers who made the ultimate sacrifice in the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Roger Messick, '52, an Army helicopter pilot in Vietnam and former AMA Battalion Commander, will be our Saturday noon speaker. Friday's motor coach tour will be special as Frank Williamson, '60, and Bob Hume, '63, have teamed up again to make the trip to Graves Mountain memorable.

Some new things this year. Saturday's Founders Day Ceremony will be held before lunch rather than after. (We'll eat about 30 to 45 minutes later than usual) Luke Snyder, '60, is working on a firing squad for the graveside event. (If this doesn't work out, we'll still have our cannon) The Roller Rifles will make another appearance (Yes !!!!) and the Saturday evening event will conclude in the Ball Room at the Holiday Inn where we'll also close out what promises to be another very successful Silent Auction.

Many thanks to all the volunteers and AMA Museum staff who help pull the reunion together. It's a labor of love for so many. It takes months and months to plan, strategize and execute our annual reunions. The many who make it happen are rewarded by those that attend and enjoy the weekend. So, please make plans to attend and be sure to thank those who make it happen.

I'm hopeful you'll take the time to return the blue registration form today. Then, right after you've applied the stamp, reach out: call your old roommate, your long-time friend or the AMA Brother you've not seen in years and invite him to join you in the Shenandoah Valley April 27-30, 2006. You'll be glad you did!

Tower of Power goal is $1,000+

Again in 2006, Frank Williamson, '60, plans to make at least $1,000 on the sale of Tower of Power tickets.

There actually is a tower (see Frank at right with the Tower and its contents). Inside, is a bottle of Virginia Gentleman, a bottle to be held until the last surviving AMA alumni share it in a toast to the old school.

At Reunion 2006, Frank and his helpers will sell tickets on chances for bottles of the precious liquid which will be given away several times during the reunion. Frank and Bev donate the booze so all proceeds from ticket sales go to the AMA Alumni Foundation. Plan now to help us raise at least $1,000 once again this year!

What do you have for the 2006 SILENT AUCTION?

Every AMA Reunion gives the attendees an opportunity to buy some spectacular things at reasonable prices.

And since all of the items for sale are donated, all of the money collected goes directly to AMA!

So, what do you have in your basement, garage, or your closet that you were going to sell "one of these days?" How about donating such things to the AMA Silent Auction for which you can take a tax deduction.

The Silent Auction Chairman is Dave Conrad, '59, who does an outstanding job every single year. Please tell Dave or anyone at the AMA Museum that you will be bringing a special item or items to the auction, and we'll be on the lookout for it.

Whether or not you have something to donate, make it a point to bid on the great items you will see at the reunion! The Silent Auction begins at 8 AM on Friday 28 April and will end precisely at 8:30 PM on Saturday 29 April at the Holiday Inn Golf and Conference Center, headquarters for Reunion 2006. All Silent Auction items can be seen there.

The Roller Rifles - One more time in 2006

By Jim Hash, '72

The night my son was born, Don Studer and I sat in the expecting father's waiting room until it was time for me to do my "Lamaze thing". I doubt my participation in the birthing process actually held any significance whatsoever, as my wife was delirious during the whole event and couldn't have differentiated between me and Peewee Herman. Still, I have to admit, I walked out of the delivery room with the knowledge that I had witnessed a miracle. Admittedly, it's a small miracle (unless you're the one with your legs in the stirrups) that occurs countless times all around the world, but a miracle nonetheless.

I witnessed another small miracle about eight months ago, and I'm teetering on the possibility of believing that it was, in some ways, more of a miracle than human birth. Certainly, a pregnant woman coming to full term happens often enough...thousands of times a day. But the miracle to which I refer only happened once in the last 19 years - and oh, it was a sight to behold. Okay, perhaps "miracle" is a bit strong, but truly, what I observed that day was nothing short of extraordinary, an event of monumental proportions. As a bystander, I was filled with pride and awe that not only could this event take place, but could be executed with a considerable amount of precision.

Of course, I speak of the re (constituted, incarnated, established, born, generated, built, fabricated, created - pick one) Roller Rifles. For those of you who marched last year, you fellas polished my heart, thank you. That event alone was worth whatever physical discomfort I endured to make the drive from Georgia.

I don't know how many of you realize how good you actually looked. I retired from the Army in '94, so my memory of active duty soldiers is not that far back. I can assure you, that you fellas looked at least as good or better than 95% of the guys with whom I served. Of course you looked good in large part because you had the Band Company drum corps to keep you in step while the onlookers became weak-kneed as the beat resonated through the barracks.

Some of you may need a little jogging of the memory, but I'd like you to take a look at the faces shown in the picture below. I see a lot more than camaraderie in those faces. I see genuine pride and acknowledgment that not only did you look good, but you damn well enjoyed yourselves doing it.

This year, there has been an ongoing drive to have the Roller Rifles march again. Many members of last year's team have expressed interest in christening the parade field with the sound of our drums, boots, rifles and cadences. However, we haven't heard from all of last year's members and we'd like to add another ten to twelve additional marchers. Unless you have trashed the uniform while doing yard work or deer hunting, it ought to be good for at least ONE more trip around the Clay Bowl. So please, break out the iron and put a few creases in those pants, so we can better the Massanutten MA cadets who also will march that day.

Anyway, if you plan on marching again or if you would like to join the legendary drill team, please send Tom Del Valle, '73, a confirmation no later than 15 February 2006. His e-mail is tom.del.valle@aa.com or tomrdelvalle@comcast.net, or you can call him at 817/967-2430. The cost for this much fun tends to run about 120 dollars and you get to keep all the stuff!! Tom and I hope to see you at the 2006 Gathering of the Clan.

Friday reunion trip goes to President Madison's country

The Friday luxury motorcoach tour will take reunion goers to President James Madison's country where Revolutionary and Civil War sites abound. Formed in 1734, Orange County, Virginia has some of the most heavily fought-over ground in America. The Revolutionary War brought the Marquis de Lafayette and his army to Orange County and the county's boundary on the Rapidan River became part of the northern border of the Confederacy during the Civil War.

General Lee's pew

The tour will begin at the St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Orange (see photo on page 1) which has seen a tremendous amount of colonial and Civil War history. Here, those who so wish may sit in General Robert E. Lee's pew.

From Orange, the tour will go to Gordonsville past the meadow from which the Second Manassas and Antietam campaigns were launched in the Civil War. There will be a visit to the Exchange Hotel, a highly acclaimed museum on Civil War weapons, uniforms, medicine and transportation.

Our motorcoach, donated by Bob Hume, '63, will then travel along the world famous Blue Ridge Parkway with breathtaking views in all directions.

Lunch at Graves Mountain

This short ride will bring us to our luncheon stop: Graves Mountain Lodge. Anyone who knows this part of Virginia knows what a treat we are in for! For 135 years, Graves Mountain has offered memorable food in copious quantities.

After lunch, there may be a stop at Yoder's Country Market, if there is time, or possibly a loop through the Rapidan Historic District or a drive through the grounds of James Madison's Montpelier. Barboursville is the site of the ruins of the 1882 Barboursville Mansion, designed by Thomas Jefferson (photo at left).

Wine tasting

Barboursville also is the home of one of Virginia's premier wineries. Orange County produces more tons of wine grapes than any other Virginia county and the Barboursville vineyards are the focus of Wine Country Virginia. Of course, we will stop to sample these premium wines (see photo on page 1).

Everything on the tour is included in the $37 per person charge — the luxury motorcoach, entry to all attractions, the fabulous lunch at Graves Mountain, and the wine tasting at Barboursville.

Frank Williamson, '60, and Bev will host the group on the AMA tour. The motorcoach will be met by Frank Walker who is the lead guide for Tourguide, Limited. Walker is an expert on the history of the area from the Native American era through colonial times and the Civil War and its aftermath. A superb opportunity!
